FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October 9, 2013

The Killeen Police Department's Internal Affairs Unit is currently conducting an investigation into allegations of violations of department policy as they relate to management of personnel and the proper care of animals. Stacey Sherva, the Killeen Police Department's Animal Control Manager, has been placed on paid administrative leave as of Friday, October 4, 2013. Because the investigation is ongoing, no further information will be released at this time.

Commander Lee Caufield will assume command of the Animal Control Unit as the interim Animal Control Manager.
